Born in the community after which they are named. In the Municipality of San Matias of the Department of El Paraiso, Danli, Honduras in 1926. According to the legend, between the years of 1940 - 1960. San Jeronimo was known for its production of high quality cigars known for their texture, flavor, and aroma. The cigars are blended to the likeness of its ancestors dating back nearly 60 years. The binder and filler tobaccos come from the region of San Jeronimo, Honduras. The skilled labor is 100% Honduran, from seed to smoke.

This is a cigar that is truly a piece of Honduran history.

Kafie 1901 Premium Hand Rolled Cigarillos

Habano Natural

Double Fermented & Aged Fillers

Vitola: 4x22

Box: 50 cigars

Habano Maduro

Double Fermented & Aged Fillers

Vitola: 4x22

Box: 50 cigars

All Cigarillos are hand rolled one at a time. The filler and binder tobaccos are hand rolled then placed in a cigar press. The delicately selected wrapper is then applied. The cigars are left to age for a period of 6-8 weeks in our aging room prior to packaging. We want to ensure you have the greatest experience with each and every one. Thank you for taking the time to support
